SOCIAL EVENTS.

Mrs. Cleora Lane entertained the Birthday club at her home on Eastern avenue last Wednesday evening.

Willie was played at three tables, Mrs. Belle Sargent winning the first prize, the consolation prize going to Mrs. Elizabeth Steele. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

The S. Y. T. club was delightfully entertained by Miss Gladys Bigelow last Thursday evening at her home at 20 Caledonia street.

About seven o'clock last Wednesday evening, while Mrs. Ashley Bean of South Main street was at one of her neighbors Mr. Bean stepped to the door to answer the bell and met a complete surprise, finding 30 friends and neighbors in line ready to help him celebrate his birthday.

The evening was pleasantly spent playing whist, with piano duets by Mrs. Ina Shaw and Mrs. Laura Hodge, singing by Mrs. Herbert Wolfert and Mrs. A. S. Copp. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served, also a birthday cake bearing 30 lighted candles which Mr. Bean was requested to blow out. They presented him with a tool chest made by Elmer Lewis and an oak chair. One of the party was thoughtful enough to bring with him a paddle which could not be used until after the clock struck 12 as Mr. Bean's life dates from Jan. 20 not the 19th. This happy gathering was one long to be remembered by all.

The Comus club met Monday evening at the home of Miss Hazel Annis.

Mrs. Jennie Noyes entertained three tables at whist Friday evening, serving delicious refreshments.

The Conversation circle enjoyed a luncheon on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. George F. Cheney and presenters Mrs. Cheney with a picture for her new home.

The Woman's Club House association gave a very pleasing entertainment Friday evening at Pythian hall in the form of a "Cafe Chantant."

A delightful program of music, reading and dancing with special features by the evank-popular Frank O. French kept all who came well entertained while an able committee served refreshments. The hall was arranged with small tables so that eating and smoking were as much a part of the program as the music. In addition to the social pleasures of the occasion the affair was a financial success.

Clover Temple, No. 1, Pythian Sisters entertained Danville Green Temple, Calanthe Temple of Lyndon, and Knights of Apollo lodge, Monday night, Jan. 24. A sumptuous banquet was served at 6.30 to about 75 guests. After the banquet Clover Temple held their regular meeting with a large attendance of members and visitors. At the close of the lodge all were invited to listen to a specially prepared program. The first number was a solo by Mr. Bollinger, which was greatly enjoyed. Following this the "Pease Sisters" was presented by six Pythian sisters of Clover Temple; Mrs. Mabel Ellis, Mrs. Edna Nute, Mrs. Margaret Vernon, Mrs. Carrie Wright, Mrs. Colie Waite and Mrs. Lillian McGill. Following this number Rev. G. A. Martin spoke on "Why I am a Knight," and Mrs. O. H. Henderson on "Why I am a Pythian Sister." The program closed with a solo by a coon from Alabama, Mrs. Carrie Wright, which was enthusiastically received. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by Clover Temple and a social time closed an evening of fraternal enjoyment.

Farmers Meeting at Lower Waterford

Moren, head of the Cow Testing association of Vermont and L. A. Wood, county agent, will be present. The work of the cow testing associations, fertilizers and alfalfa will be taken up.

We want your job now.

MISS MORRISON'S GRIP FOUND.
Was Left In Store Near North Station
—No Further Clue.

The only clue to the missing Geraldine Morrison who ran away from her home on Railroad street

Jan. 16, is the finding of her grip in a store near the North Station in Boston. Detectives in Boston have learned that a young girl answering the description of Miss Morrison came into the store Monday morning, Jan. 17, and asked to leave her grip for a while. They consented to keep it for her but have not seen the girl since.

The store was that of Herman Streeter & Sons, 74 Sudbury street. They are copper smiths, manufacturers of bar pumps, bar faucets, etc., and the store is located 8 or 10 minutes walk from the North station. The grip was left there about 8:15 in the morning. A young man named Trainor received the grip, and when he saw the picture of Miss Morrison in the Boston newspaper, he recognized it as the girl who had left the grip at the store.

The fact she left her grip there indicates that she was not met by anyone at the station when she reached Boston. The fact she has never called for the grip leads to the belief that the girl is either detained at some place against her will or that she is unable to remember where she has left it.

The detective inserted an advertisement in the Boston papers Tuesday morning concerning the grip and where it could be found. An officer will be stationed in the store and if Miss Morrison comes for the grip herself she will be detained. Should some other person call for it they will be detained in the hope it may lead to the discovery of where the girl is being held.

Her father, Reuben Morrison, and brother, Samuel, went to Boston last week in search of her but could find no trace whatever beyond the fact she left the train there. They returned home the latter part of the week.

In the girl's grip are articles of clothing, a Christmas present from "Aunt Catherine," and these indicate that she planned to leave home permanently. She left a note pinned to the pillow in her bed saying that she was going away but would return sometime if her people would have her.

Her family are in deep distress over her disappearance and fear some evil has befallen her. They have the deepest sympathy of everyone in their terrible misfortune.

Baptist Brotherhood.

The men of the First Baptist church organized a Brotherhood on Thursday evening at the close of an evening of pleasure and profit. Over 30 sat down to supper served by the deaconesses of the church after which came a short entertainment. Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Burt sang a duet, Mrs. Burt favored the audience with a solo and Mrs. Benson sang a solo.

Best of sympathies were given to the men upon the general subject of brotherhood. The pastor followed with a supplementary address in which he urged the formation of a Brotherhood. This was readily taken up by all present and the following officers: President, O. H. Henderson; vice-president, B. M. Spaulding; secretary, Robert Gordon; treasurer, W. H. McFarlin. Social and membership committees were also appointed and it was voted to have monthly meetings of the new organization.

Don't worry. Advertise what you have to sell is all that is necessary, worry takes too much vitality.

RECENT DEATHS
